

There is no charge for entering the Rally Bohemia

Press Release no. 22
Mladá Boleslav, 11th July 2012

The Rally Bohemia offers to automobile sport fans a unique show, which is, as every year, for free. It means there is no charge for entering the special stages.

There is no charge for entering the special stages of the 39th Rally Bohemia, except for one, which is the parallel show in Global Assistance Racing Arena in Sosnová near Česká Lípa. This very popular spectators' special stage can be watched from any of dedans after paying the ticket in the price range from 100 to 350 CZK. Shouldn't you like to postpone purchasing the ticket till the very last day and experience long queue by the ticket office, you can use the opportunity of advance booking online straight from your home. The purchasing system is run by the TICKETSTREAM network including the travel agencies ČEDOK, FIRO-tour, the bookstore KANZELSBERGER and the network of stores BONTONLAND. The portal can be found on the address at www.ticketstream.cz, email: info@ticketstream.cz. As a reward for your purchase it will be the view over the special stage, where there are new jumps, one bridge and attractive gravel section of the track.

Information about the spectators' places, maps and timetable of the 39th Rally Bohemia can be found on the official website at www.rallybohemia.cz as well as in the last issues of the magazines AutoTip and Svět Motorů, and some chosen internet portals and electronic media.

The limited number of the 39th Rally Bohemia Programme will be on sale for 50 CZK available on Friday in the Rally Bohemia Headquarters at Na Karmeli, on Saturday and Sunday in the Service Park at the Hoškovice Airport near Mnichovo Hradiště.

General partner of the Rally Bohemia is the Škoda Auto automobile factory, which provides a representative background and also seeds into the competition factory's crews driving in Škoda Fabia S2000 cars.
